Hanes gweinyddol / Braslun bywgraffyddol | Administrative history | Biographical sketch

Nodyn | Note

The Williams family of Aberpergwm was an old family with a very long association with the upper Neath Valley. The family pedigree can be traced back to one Morgan ap Caradoc ap Iestyn, the 12th century lord of Nedd-Afan. The family made Aberpergwm their home in the 16th century, and continued there until the 1950s. The estate consisted in the main of a large area in the parish of Cadoxton-juxta-Neath, principally in the hamlets of Neath Higher and Neath Middle, in the manor of Neath Ultra and Cilybebyll, and adjacent areas in Breconshire. Several members of the family were instrumental in cultivating Welsh poetry and music in the Neath Valley, and the house once contained many important Welsh manuscripts. The Williams family were deeply involved in the coal industry, encouraging the growth of the industry to such an extent that Morgan Stuart Williams is described in 1889 as colliery owner in preference to the usual esquire.

William Williams (1788-1855) married Matilda Susannah Smith, only daughter and sole heiress of Col. Thomas Smith of Castellau, Glamorgan, and Rosamund, daughter of John Bush of Burcot, Oxfordshire. Matilda Susannah married secondly, Edward Lloyd of Ty'n-y-Rhyl, Flintshire, which may explain the presence of papers of the Lloyd family of Castellau and Aberpergwm.

According to the 1873 return of owners of land, Morgan Stuart Williams (1846-1909) of Aberpergwm, Glamorgan, owned an estimated 3,917 acres in Wales (in Glamorgan and Breconshire), with an estimated rental of £3,690. He purchased the St Donat's Castle estate in 1899. His eldest son and heir, Godfrey Herbert Joseph Williams, sold St Donat's Castle in 1922.

Wished the Welsh were as proud and patriotic as the Scots. St David's day concert which he had arranged had for the first time in half a century consisted only of national music. The harper had done his best but he wished Gruffydd had been there. His work on Welsh music dragged on and would probably cost £200 or £300 to print. He had spent £12 on advertising but it had only produced half a dozen names in Wales whilst Mr Raikes an Englishman in Breconshire had obtained 30 or 40 names amongst his private friends. Gounod concert in which Edith Wynne was the heroine and had been led forward by the composer. 	Natur a chynnwys / Scope and content: Sailed from Brindisi on the 31st. Splendid steamer over 2000 tons with 120 first class passengers. Nine bachelors. Passed over the place where Pharaoh is said to have crossed the Red Sea. [Describes routine on board ship]. Get to Aden tomorrow and start again for Bombay and arrive there in six days. There is a steamer from Bombay to Calicut where the hacks and bullock waggons will meet the party and then to Major Rossall's bungalow. Will write a letter to Jocky [his brother, George] as it is his birthday tomorrow.

3034. vtls005025722 ISYSARCHB2	File - Edward Lloyd, Aberpergwm, 1873, July 1. Natur a chynnwys / Scope and content: Pope's clerk could not measure ceiling heights because he did not have the keys. Loss of wool due to want of fencing. Larch above Lamb and Flag blown down; road to valley cut off by railway. Agreement about the Gloutz cottages. Saw Thomas Evan Budd's new foreman and the damage done by the railway. The neglect of [Morgan Stuart Williams's] interests has cost thousands of pounds and the Railway Company has wilfully obstructed Mr Budd's working in order to force the material over their line. The railway cuts off the timber above it from the valley. The branch railway is 40 yards higher than that proposed by the writer and Strick. Timber destroyed at Gwain Clawdd by Budd's roads and tips. London house now divided into three and the rents could be increased by spending £10 on it. Nothing has been done to Tir Cwm since the stables burnt down. Brickworks in De Winter's land made of Scilica rock, which is better than Dinas Sand. Nodyn / Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: 3034. Lleoliad ffisegol / Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)

Culm trade at a standstill. Credit has been reduced from 6 to 3 months. Price to be maintained but 6d. a ton to be allowed to each proprietor. Stock is 8,000 tons. Colliers at the Hay will not work without 5s. a day with food and beer and women demand 2s. a day plus food. Intends proposing a siding between Briton Ferry and Neath at canal meeting. Bought timber from Mrs Smith. Discussions concerning 10% pay award with Price and Captain Young. NLW MS 24187B. 992460594802419	File - Kenyan safari journal	1900	100 ff. (original pagination 1-44 on ff. 2 verso-24; ff. 60 verso-97 blank) ; 200 x 165 mm. Ruled notebook, vellum over boards with marbled endpapers; 'The account of a journey taken by three musketeers in which their pleasures and troubles are accurately and faithfully described by one of them A.D. 1900' and 'Morgan S. Williams of Aberpergwm' in red ink on front cover, together with a watercolour painting of a Maasai man (cf. f. 48); '1½' (stamp at foot of spine); 'Sold by Partridge & Cooper... London' (printed label inside front cover).
	Crëwr / Creator: Williams, Morgan S. (Morgan Stuart), 1846-1909 Natur a chynnwys / Scope and content: Diary, 9 April-16 June 1900, of Morgan S. Williams of Aberpergwm House, Neath, recounting an expedition to British East Africa [now Kenya] on safari with two companions identified only as Godfrey [probably his eldest son, Godfrey Herbert Joseph Williams] and Rhys (ff. 1 verso-23 verso), together with thirty-six photographs taken on the safari (pasted in on ff. 25-60, rectos only). The group left London on 9 April and set sail from Marseille the following day (f. 1 verso), reaching Mombasa on 28 April (f. 3 verso). They made preparations there (ff. 3 verso-6) and left on the Uganda Railway for the interior on 2 May, along with fifty-one local porters and fifteen others. From the rail head beyond Nairobi the group trekked northwards to the vicinity of Lakes Naivasha, Elementaita and Nakuru, where the three men hunted game for several days, 9-14 May (ff. 7 verso-14). The trip was cut short due to Godfrey falling ill; he and Morgan left Rhys and returned to Mombasa, sailing to Zanzibar, where Godfrey was hospitalised, and finally sailed back to Europe on 27 May (f. 20), arriving in London on 14 June (f. 23). The photographs mostly comprise various groups of Maasai people (ff. 25-32, 34-39, 43-48, 53), the group's encampments (ff. 33, 54, 59-60) and trophies including two dead rhinos (ff. 49-53, 55-58); an European appearing in three photographs is probably Williams himself (ff. 54, 56, 60). The presence of a photograph labelled 'Lake Baringo' (f. 42) suggests they were taken by Rhys, as the only one to continue north to that location. Also included are various memoranda and lists relating to the safari (ff. 97 verso-100) and a pencil sketch of Mt Kilimanjaro, dated 3 May (f. 100). Amodau rheoli defnydd / Conditions governing use: Usual copyright laws apply. Nodyn / Note [generalNote]: Title based on contents. Nodyn / Note [generalNote]: '104304' (Shapero Rare Books stock number) and 'RNBB' (pencil on f. 1). Lleoliad ffisegol / Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)
