Nodyn | Note

Gareth Vaughan Jones (1905-1935), journalist, was born in Barry, Glamorgan, on 13 August 1905, the son of Major Edgar and Gwen Jones. He was educated at Barry County School, the University College of Wales, Aberystwyth, and Trinity College, Cambridge, gaining first class honours in Modern Languages. He then became private secretary and researcher to David Lloyd George, 1930-1931 and 1932-1933 and also spent a year in New York, 1931-1932, as a foreign advisor to Ivy Lee and Associates. In 1933 he joined the editorial staff of the Western Mail, and visited Russia, writing a series of articles exposing conditions in the Ukraine, notably the terrible famine there (the 'Holodomor'). He embarked on a 'round-the-world-tour' in 1934, but was murdered by 'bandits' in inner Mongolia on 12 August 1935. In Search of News: a selection of articles from the Western Mail (2nd edition, Cardiff, 1938) was published posthumously. Gareth Vaughan Jones's father, Dr Edgar William Jones (1868-1953), was the headmaster of Barry County School, 1899-1934. He subsequently became Adviser on Welsh Matters to the BBC, and made broadcasts on BBC radio. He was given the Freedom of the Borough of Barry in 1950.

Natur a chynnwys | Scope and content

The notebooks contain notes made by Gareth Jones. The earliest ones were kept while he was a student at the University College of Wales, Aberystwyth and Trinity College, Cambridge, and are mainly linguistic in character. Later notes are often political commentaries and observations on international developments - in Europe, America and Russia. There are also many travel notes commenting on the countries where he travels and the people whom he meets. Some were kept while Gareth Jones was in the employ of David Lloyd George, based at Churt, and acting as a researcher for the compilation of Lloyd George's War Memoirs.

At the start of the notebook there are notes including a reference and instructions to go to Kharkoff from Samuel N. Harper, a Russia expert who had returned from USSR in late October 1932 and who met Sir Bernard Pares and Jones at an RIIA meeting on December 14, 1932. It is believed that the notes were immediately after this meeting. The remainder of the notebook dates from July 1933 and was written in Paris. According to Ray Gamache this diary notebook is actually a very important one in that it establishes with documentation who persuaded Jones to undertake his 1933 trips to Germany and the Soviet Union for his newspaper series, "A Welshman Looks at Europe." Nodyn / Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: B3/14. Lleoliad ffisegol / Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)

B3/17. vtls006010076	File - Travels in Germany, Natur a chynnwys / Scope and content: Notes on Gareth Jones's travels in Germany. Describes some of the individuals whom he met there including an interview with Albion Ross, a New York Times correspondent newly arrived in Berlin. It also includes an interview with Reinhard Haferkorn, identified in Jones's later newspaper article as "a German professor who had great experience of foreign travel". Even though the inside front cover is dated June 1, 1934, the material included in this diary notebook corresponds with Western Mail articles written in the first week of June 1933 so parts of the notebook may have been written at different times. Nodyn / Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: B3/17. Lleoliad ffisegol / Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)	1933-1934	0.5 cm.

B6/1. vtls006010299	File - Letters from Cambridge University,	1916-1928.	3.5 cm.
	Natur a chynnwys Scope and content: Letters from Gareth Vaughan Jones, mainly from Trinity College, Cambridge, 1926-1928, when he was a student there. They relate in some detail his activities and academic and social pursuits and give his impressions of his surroundings and his companions. He also comments on the activities of various student societies. Occasionally he gives news of his friends. There are also occasional references to items of national and international news, particularly political. He regularly enquires, too, about people and events at home in Barry and comments on the domestic life of the Jones family. There are a few references to relatives. There are also a few discussions of his future plans and aspirations. A small number of the earlier letters are written from the University of Strasbourg where Gareth Jones spent the academic year 1924-1925. Nodyn Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: B6/1. Lleoliad ffisegol Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)

	Natur a chynnwys Scope and content: Many of the letters are written from Trinity College, Cambridge, a few from The Times office at London, and some from 25 Old Queen Street, Westminster when Gareth Vaughan Jones was in the employ of David Lloyd George. There are also a few letters written from continental and Russian cities like Berlin, Moscow and Warsaw where he describes his surroundings and events. They describe his academic activities - essays, examinations etc. - and leisure pursuits. He also refers to his work as a tutor and his students there. He writes in great detail about the people whom he meets and gives his impressions of them. There are many references to international affairs and events on the Continent, and some

	discussion of events at Barry and family news. Later he describes his duties for Lloyd George and the politicians he meets while in his employ. Nodyn Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: B6/2. Lleoliad ffisegol Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)
B6/3. vtls006010496	File - Letters from New York, 1931. 5.5 cm. Natur a chynnwys Scope and content: Most of the letters are written from New York when Gareth Jones was in the employ of Ivy Lee and Associates, a public relations counselling office. Ivy Lee also had other peripheral pursuits. Gareth Jones describes in detail his travels, experiences and the people whom he meets, including Herbert Hoover, then the President of the United States. He refers to many other public figures and academics in the USA. He also describes his research work and other duties while in the employ of Ivy Lee. There are also constant references to family news and events at home in Barry and south Wales and replies to letters received from members of his family at home. A few of the letters are written at various locations on the continent as Gareth Jones travelled in Europe. There are also frequent references to a book which he is preparing on the situation in Russia, the articles which he is publishing in various newspapers, and to the economic and fiscal problems of the time. Nodyn Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: B6/3. Lleoliad ffisegol Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)

These letters describe his work and activities there and the interesting people whom he meets and his trips to various places. Later he describes his work as a journalist and his plans and ambitions for the course of his future career. He often refers to the books which he is reading too. Later in 1934 he began his 'around-the-world tour', and there are some letters from a large number of countries describing his events and experiences. There are letters written at New York, Washington DC, Wisconsin, Hollywood (California) during the early part of the tour, and he often refers to the articles which he is writing for various newspapers and journals and to the lectures which he sometimes delivers. Later letters were written at Japan, Hong Kong, Java, Singapore, Siam and China and discuss events

	and developments in those countries and his ever developing and changing plans for travelling further. Throughout there are references and enquiries about events at home in Barry and south Wales. There are also typescript copies of some of the last letters which he sent to his family during June and July 1935 just before his capture by the 'bandits'. Nodyn Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: B6/5. Lleoliad ffisegol Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)

The stanchion allowed the cow to turn her head and also aligned her with the manure gutter for greater sanitation. The president of Kent Manufacturing in Fort Atkinson recognized the value of this invention and quickly invited Mr. James to join his firm. In 1906 W. D. James moved to Fort Atkinson, a city he described as the "center of the dairy world." These may have been acquired during GVJ's visit to Wales, Wisconsin in 1935, an account of which was published in the Western Mail of March 29th 1935. The stanchion was a great success and Kent's sales increased nearly 30% every year. Soon their small plant on South Water Street took up the entire block w the Fort Atkinson Fire and Police Departments are today. In 1912 the company changed its name to the James Manufacturing Company and the "James Way" slogan became synonymous with quality farm equipment."

[Modern Photographs] vtls006171116	File - [Modern Photographs]	[ca.1990-ca.2005]	66 photographs : col, b&w; 300 x 210 mm or smaller.
	Natur a chynnwys / Scope and content: A variety of modern photographs connected with Gareth Vaughan Jones. These include a trip by Edward David to the place of GVJ's assassination ca.2005; copies of old postcards and family photographs; Chinese artefacts; Soviet propoganda posters from the 1930s brought home by GVJ. Nodyn / Note [generalNote]: Nos. 4552955/353-367 were in an A4 plastic sleeve labelled 'Photos taken by Edward David son of Illtyd David in Meng, the place Gareth was killed.' Nodyn / Note [generalNote]: Many of the Soviet propaganda posters are believed to be the work of Mikhail Cheremnykh (1890-1962). Titles include "The Tractor is in the field; it is the end of the will of God"; "We will fulfil the decisions of the Party about the elimination of illiteracy"; Working in a new way, leading in a new way"; "Imperialism and religion"; "We will keep out the Kulaks from the collective farms"; "We are on guard in defence of Socialism"; "The road to world wide Otober"; "Hoover Plan in Crisis"; "Regulations for the agricultural work group." Nodyn / Note [generalNote]:

	Also includes prints of eleven lantern slides from the papers of GVJ. Some of the photos from which the slides are derived appears to be the work of GVJ, the others seem to have been made using images from other (printed?) sources. All are of Russia in the 1930s and include starving peasants on the streets of Moscow. Nodyn / Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: Gareth Vaughan Jones Lleoliad ffisegol / Physical location: LLUN/Llyfrau Ffoto
