Hanes gweinyddol / Braslun bywgraffyddol | Administrative history | Biographical sketch

Nodyn | Note

The collection includes personal and family papers of several of the partners in the business. James Hughes of Aberystwyth, the principal of Hughes & Roberts, the predecessors in business of Roberts &

Evans, married Mary Bonsall in 1820. In 1824 she inherited the Glanrheidol estate, at which point Hughes changed his surname to Hughes-Bonsall. James Hughes, the Bonsall and Hughes-Bonsall families, and the Glanrheidol estate are all well represented in this collection. In 1834 Frederick Rowland Roberts of Starkly, co. Bucks, gent., entered articles of clerkship to Horatio Hughes of Aberystwyth, solicitor. Frederick was the son of Rev. Richard Roberts of Eltham, Kent, and Elizabeth his wife, nee Elizabeth Elwyn of Canterbury (post nuptial settlement, 1812). Frederick died in 1888, survived by Jane Roberts his widow. Their son Frederick Richard Roberts (1859-1921; probate of will, 1928) was also a partner in the business. He and his wife Blanche Juliet Hope Roberts (d. 1928) had children Frederick Rowland Roberts (of The Neuadd, Aberdyfi, esq., in 1930) and Algernon Cassan Roberts (fl. 1972), solicitor. The successor in business to the firm of Roberts & Evans is now (2014) Morris & Bates of Aberystwyth, solicitors.

Hanes Gwarchodol | Custodial history

- (i) The 1988 deposit was received in Aug. 1988 in 148 boxes, and the 'Summary inventory' prepared. Boxes 1-25, relating to the Trawsgoed and Glanpaith estates, were returned as detailed above. At some point the remaining boxes were renumbered A 1-68, B 1-30, C 1-25 and D 1-9, and the bundles within many of the boxes numbered. By an oversight, two boxes were numbered A 36, and the numbers A 51-59 and bundle numbers A 4/2-3 were not used.
- (ii) A second deposit in 125 boxes was received in 1998, the boxes being numbered Z 1-125, and a summary boxlist created.
- (iii) Assessed taxes (boxes Z 45-56?) and land tax assessments (boxes numbered 55-63, but probably originally boxes Z 63-65) were extracted, sorted, boxed, and in the case of the land tax assessments, listed separately.
- (iv) The contents of a number of boxes from throughout the collection were calendared on slips by Glyn Parry, and their boxes renumbered 1-77.
- (iv) During the summer of 2004, Anna Skarzynska, a UCW archive student, listed twelve boxes of minor clients: A 66, C 1-7, C 9-10 and Z 95-96.
- (v) This current list was compiled, mainly 2011-2013, incorporating Glyn Parry's and Anna Skarzynska's work, but excluding the assessed taxes (see (iii) above) already extracted.
- (vi) A number of boxes cannot be definitely for, although they probably contained volumes that came to the present catalogue as loose volumes. Also C 20-24 (originally boxes 134-138), described in the 1988 preliminary schedule as "papers of the clerk of the county council, mainly 1917-20 [we suggest that these should be deposited with the Ceredigion Record Office]", and C 25 (originally box 139), described as "Bible, hymn books and prayer books of the Earl of Lisburn [we suggest that these be returned to the Earl of Lisburne]", were not found, and are presumed to have been transferred to Ceredigion Archives and the Earl of Lisburne respectively.
- (vii) During the course of the current cataloguing, an unnumbered box was found in Jan. 2012 on the shelf after box C 19, probably representing work in hand when work on the collection came to a halt on a previous occasion. Boxes C 20-25 are assumed to have been dispersed (see (vi) above), so for the purposes of identification this box was given the notional number C 26.
- (viii) Three small R&E accessions, detailed above, have been incorporated into this catalogue.

Ffynhonnell | Immediate source of acquisition

The bulk of the archive was deposited in two groups. The first group of 148 boxes (summary inventory initially numbered 1-148) was deposited by Roberts & Evans in Aug. 1988 (NLW Annual Report, 1988-89, p. 67). The second group was deposited in 1998, comprising 125 boxes (numbered Z1-125 at NLW), plus ledgers, letter books and instructions from clients (comprising the bulk, if not all, of the c.300 loose volumes when the collection came to be catalogued) (NLW Annual Report, 1997-98).

A group of papers deposited earlier was amalgamated into the collection. These are papers relating to Jones v. Powell, re. the Welsh estate of John Jones of Derry Ormond, esq., dec., Messrs Hughes & Roberts of Aberystwyth, solicitors, the predecessors of Roberts & Evans, being the receivers of the estate (one box

An additional file of papers, being the probate record of Owen Prys, 1884, and probate documents of John Prys, 1926, was donated by Ifan Moelwyn Hughes, Aberystwyth, in Jan. 2010 (1 folder

A further group of Roberts & Evans papers relating to the Cwmcynfelyn estate was received from Carolyn Evans, London, in April 2011 (five large boxes

Cyfes | Series CM9. vtls006591690: Rev. Peter Felix, Llanilar,

Dyddiad | Date: 1784-1881. (dyddiad creu) | (date of creation)

Natur a chynnwys | Scope and content:

Papers of Rev. Peter Felix (d. 1 Feb. 1861), vicar of Llanilar, and members of his family, including his wife Elizabeth Felix (d. 27 Oct. 1864), his parents Rev. David Felix of p. Chelsea St Luke, co. Mddx (fl. 1816-1834) and Mary Felix (d. 21 Jan. 1838), his brothers Morgan Felix (fl. 1830-1837) and Rev. John Felix of Llanilar (d. 27 Oct. 1864), and his nephew Rev. Hugh Felix, incumbent of Llanwenog and Llanybydder (fl. 1855-1867). It is not obvious that Peter Felix was Roberts & Evans's client; it is perhaps more likely that these are part of the papers of George Williams Parry of Llidiardau, esq., executor of Peter Felix's will, and a known client of Roberts & Evans. Most of the papers relate to Felix family affairs and Llanilar parochial affairs, Peter Felix being vicar of Llanilar from 1830; also papers relating to p. Easton Neston, co. Northants, of which Peter Felix was vicar from 1825, including the hamlet of Hulcote.

Disgrifiad ffisegol | Physical description: 11 folders, 9 volumes, 4 bundles, 4 envelopes.

Trefniant | Arrangement:

The papers were formerly loose and disorganised. A very few items have been extracted to form separate files; the remainder have been tidied into files of loose papers, each containing its share of, e.g. letters, and notes of Llanilar men's and women's clubs receipts. The files are arranged chronologically.

Cyfres | Series CM25. vtls006592717: Wernfach estate,

Dyddiad | Date: 1749-1922. (dyddiad creu) | (date of creation)

Natur a chynnwys | Scope and content:

Family and estate papers of Edward and David Theophilus of Wernfach, being material relating to properties in p. Llanrhystud owned or occupied successively by several interrelated families, notably Evans, Williams and Cruickshank. The properties are Blaenyresgair, Lluest y Conscience (formerly known as Llain y Gwen Sians and Lluest y Gron Sians), Tryal (also spelt Trial, Treal, Trual), Tyn y Clawdd (formerly known as Ty'r Treflick and Twy-yn-y-clawdd), and Wernfach (also known as Wernnewydd). It appears that the properties' last owners (and Roberts & Evans's clients) were Edward and David Theophilus of Wernfach, who were also related to the previous owners and/or tenants.

Thomas Johnes of Hafod had been the owner (but not the occupier) of some of these lands, and is a party to several of the earlier transactions recorded in these deeds.

Cyfres | Series SA4. vtls006595865: Ledgers,

Dyddiad | Date: 1876-1988. (dyddiad creu) | (date of creation)

Natur a chynnwys | Scope and content:

The ledgers contain the accounts between R&E and their clients. R&E probably started to number their ledgers in the mid 1890s, and carried on to the end of the current series in 1988, when some at least of the accounts were carried forward into Morris & Bates's books. The covering dates of many the ledgers overlap, with a number of ledgers in use at the same time. This can result in accounts skipping a ledger. For example, "Messrs Fred. Williams, 6 New Street, and R. D. Jenkins, Black Lion Hotel, both of Talybont" is carried forward from ledger 2, fo. 2, to ledger 4, fo. 341. Many of the volumes have loose papers enclosed.

Dyddiad | Date: 1798-1942. (dyddiad creu) | (date of creation)

Natur a chynnwys | Scope and content:

These letters mainly date from 1848-1861, and mostly relate to Messrs Hughes & Roberts's private clients, although some relate to public duties, and probably include some of the contents of the bundles missing from SC 1, above. The bulk of the letters are from the same period, 1840s and 1850s, with a few earlier and later strays.

Trefniant | Arrangement:

The contents of original bundles are in their original order, and the bundles arranged chronologically. However it is clear from the ingrained dirt, tar and footprints on many of the individual items that they spent some time on a floor in considerable disorder, and despite some bundles, e.g. SC 2/4, perhaps preserving the remnants of some original bundle, it is also clear from the disordered dates that the current arrangement merely preserves the order in which the letters were collected and bundled on being retrieved from the floor. The 1842 and 1846 letters, now scattered among most bundles, are the only items in this series to have perished by damp along the top edge, suggesting they spent time together in annual bundles before being dispersed.
